WHITE COLUMNS VOL. XXIII

AUGUSTA COLLEGE
AUGUSTA, GEORGIA

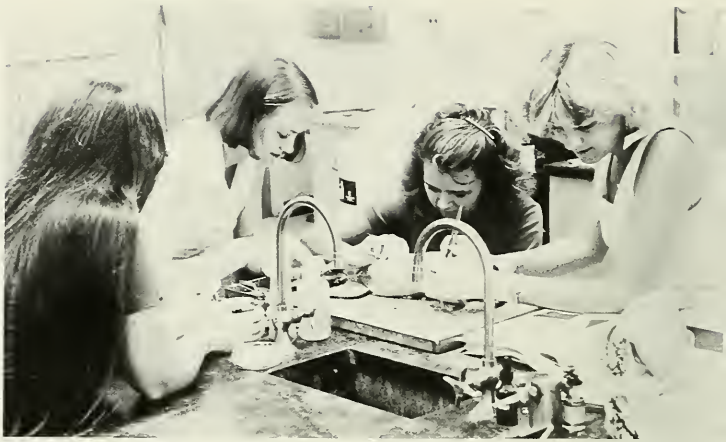
A COMMITMENT TO . . .

A plodding student . . . his study is not great but continual, and consists much in the sitting up till after midnight in a rug-gown and night-cap, to the vanquishing perhaps of some six lines; yet what he has, he has perfect, for he reads it so long to understand it till he gets it without book.

John Earle

The avid student has been a symbol of dedication and achievement. This year Augusta College joined its students in a commitment to excellence by instituting a year long fund drive which began in September. The funds will be used for library improvements, faculty development, and the acquisition of nationally known faculty members. The commitment to excellence fund drive is tangible evidence of Augusta College's dedication to students and their needs.

A COMMITMENT TO ACADEMICS



The soul of man is divided into three parts: intelligence, reason, and passion. Intelligence and passion are possessed by other animals, but reason by man alone . . . Reason is immortal, all else mortal.

Pythagoras

He who will not reason is a bigot; he who cannot is a fool; and he who dares not is a slave.

William Drummond

A COMMITMENT

Body and soul are not two substances but one. They are man becoming aware of himself in two different ways.

C. F. Von Weizsäcker

TO SPORTS

A COMMITMENT

Aim at perfection in everything, though in most things it is unattainable. However, they who aim at it, and persevere, will come much nearer to it than those whose laziness and despondency make them give it up as unattainable.

Lord Chesterfield

TO EXCELLENCE

A COMMITMENT TO OTHERS

In Memory of
Mr. George B. Cooke
December 1, 1927 - January 31, 1980

Think of the importance of friendship in the education of men. It will make a man honest; it will make him a hero; it will make him a saint. It is the state of the just dealing with the just; the magnanimous with the magnanimous; the sincere with the sincere; man with man.

Henry David Thoreau

A COMMITMENT TO FUN

To eat, drink, and be merry,
because tomorrow we die.

G. J. Whyte-Melville

A COMMITMENT TO TRADITION

Sherrell Grubbs - Homecoming Queen

Robert Hoover - Homecoming King

Tradition is an integral part of any institution and Augusta College is no different. Augusta College's commitment to tradition is high-lighted every year by Homecoming Week. This year's activities reached a climax at the basketball game against Columbus College when Sherrell Grubbs was crowned Homecoming Queen and Robert Hoover was crowned Homecoming King.

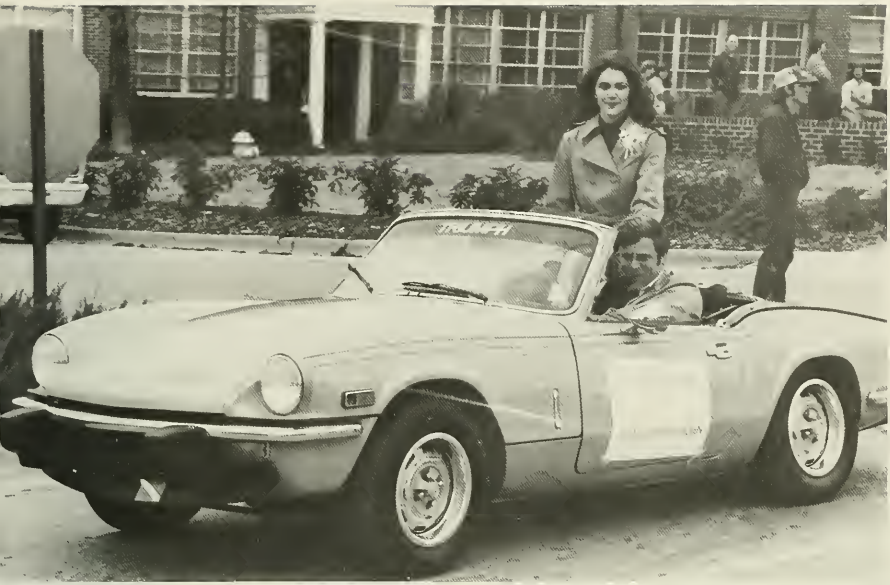
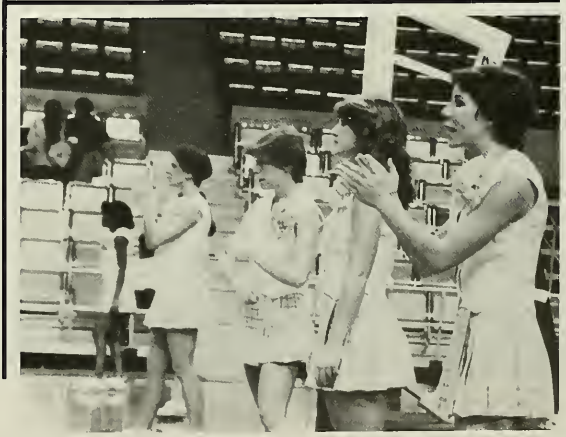
OKTOBERFEST

HOMECOMING WEEK

The activities of Homecoming Week were kicked off this year by the comedy team of Edmonds & Curley. Other activities included an ice cream party, a bonfire-hot dog roast, a parade, and of course, the homecoming game. Riding the crest of homecoming spirit, Augusta College defeated Columbus College 83 to 74. At halftime, Sherrell Grubbs was crowned Homecoming Queen and Robert Hoover was crowned Homecoming King. After the game, everyone showed up at the CAC to celebrate our victory at the homecoming dance. Everyone showed up, that is, except Mantra, the band.





TUG OF WAR

After winning the Augusta College Tug of War, Sigma Phi Nothing fraternity traveled to Atlanta to participate in the state finals. The Sigma Phi Nothings placed second in the state competition.

BLOOD DRIVE

Four blood drives were held at Augusta College this year. Three were sponsored by Pi Kappa Phi and one was sponsored by Delta Chi. According to Janet Rice, Director of Recruitment at the Walter L. Shepard Blood Center, "the community at large is very grateful for the support and enthusiasm of the college community."

Maxwell Alumni House

The Augusta College Alumni Association is a growing organization which supports every phase of the college. The association hosts activities throughout the year such as reunions and other events designed to maintain a close relationship with classmates and the college. Each graduated class receives a complimentary membership in the association for the first year following graduation. The Office of the Director of Alumni Affairs is located in the Maxwell House.
